A day for clergy and lay people to be enriched by the Gospel readings from Mark for the forthcoming Church year.

For clergy, this is a study day, providing you with resources for preaching, worship and ministry in the coming Church year, commencing on Advent Sunday.

For lay people, this is a wonderful opportunity to explore Mark's Gospel, discover its riches and deepen your spirituality in the year ahead.

There will be plenty of opportunities for reflection, input and discussion.

Registrations commence at 9.30am, when morning tea is available.

THE DAY'S LEADER

The Revd Canon Professor Dorothy Lee,
Dean of the Theological School and Frank Woods Professor in New Testament.

THE PROGRAM

The day will comprise two sessions on Mark's Gospel followed by group work in which participants will, using the readings for one of the Sundays, discuss how they would approach preaching on that day, what they felt the readings were saying, what the 'take home message' would be, and how they would structure the sermon.
